After Us Let There Be Wilderness

New Mexico Wilderness Alliance

An estate plan is a simple way to make a future gift to the New Mexico Wilderness Alliance. Please accept our thanks for your partnership. It's an honor to fulfill your deepest, permanent desires for the land and the wildlife in New Mexico.

If you wish to designate New Mexico Wilderness Alliance as a beneficiary of an IRA, life insurance policy, qualified retirement plan, or bank or brokerage account, the organization can be named to receive a specific dollar amount, a percentage, or the entire account according to your directives.

When planning a gift in your will or trust, here is helpful language to ensure your and your family wishes will be met in the future:

"I give (the sum, percentage) to New Mexico Wilderness Alliance, Albuquerque, New Mexico, to be used for the benefit of wildlands protection in New Mexico."

We encourage you to share this information with your advisors and family. Once you have made your decision we would be grateful if you would complete and return the form on the back page and send it to us to be held in confidence. If you are not already a Lifetime Member, your letter of intent will convey Lifetime Membership to you. Thank you.

New Mexico Wilderness Alliance dedicates its resources 100% to the protection, restoration, and continued respect for New Mexico's public wildlands and the wildlife who make it home.

Citizen support is the bedrock of our independence and our ability to effectively influence policy for the benefit of landscape-scale conservation.

If you wish to name New Mexico Wilderness Alliance in your will, retirement funds, life insurance or other estate plan documents you'll need some facts from us:
